Collection Name
OBJECTS & ILLUMINATION COLLECTION

Lava is an untameable force of nature that has both inspired, and demanded respect, from civilizations since history began. The Lava Vase emulates the form of the slumbering giants that allow it to escape into the world – volcanoes. Featuring an inverted cone shape with an organic texture that mimics the rolling rivers of molten stone surging downhill, each piece is handcrafted in Murano, encapsulating the primordial fire that flows beneath our feet in glass of unparalleled clarity and quality.
